Celebrating the life and memory of our beloved
Brother Harold Earl Scott.

At the age of five years old Harold's parents (Mr. Elijah and Evelyn Scott) moved their family from Birmingham, Alabama to Jersey City, NJ. Where Harold entered into the Jersey City Public School system. Harold continued his education after graduating from high school to become a Carpenter and Painter. Harold was known by his family as Babe Brother.

After the passing of Mother Scott in 2011, Harold moved to live with his oldest Brother Leonard Scott of North Dakota. Harold enjoyed his time he lived in North Dakota, but would always call home to his siblings and say that it was very cold there, but he enjoyed the time he spent with his brother, Sonny (Leonard).

Harold was a very special brother to his siblings he would go out of his way to help them from babysitting, cooking and fixing things around the house.

Harold was a baptized Christian, God called Harold home on Wednesday, May 15, 2013. Harold would always quote the following scripture to his siblings when he would call them:

"For God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." John 3:16

He was predeceased by his beloved father, Elijah Scott, Sr., mother, Evelyn Scott and sister, Estella Scott.

Harold leaves to cherish his memory: his loving brothers and sisters, Leonard Scott (Sonny), Elijah Scott, Jr. (sister-in-law, Susan), Doris Scott Allen (brother-in-law, Rev. Edward Allen, Sr.), Deborah Scott, Ileana Scott and his loving aunt, Modean McKiever; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
