

Good Bye Family

*Good Bye family I had to go
But there's something I want you to know
I enjoyed you while I had life
I had to cross over with my father Jesus Christ.
Don't you cry, don't shed a tear
Just look up and my love will appear
So good bye daughter, good bye son
O don't let me forget my little one
I'll see you soon one day
Just remember I am OK
Go on and live your life
You will soon cross over with Jesus Christ
Don't weep or mourn because you will all
Be called home, Good Bye, Good Bye Love you all.
Just remember don't let my death let you fall
Hold on, hold on tight
I'll see you soon, Goodnight.*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Barbara Jean Robinson was the beloved daughter and the ninth child born to the late Nannie and John Robinson. Born on February 9, 1953 she was raised in Newark, NJ, and attended Weequahic High School and Essex County College.

Barbara was no stranger to hard work; she worked over a decade at Hartz Mountain in Harrison, New Jersey. She also worked for various companies such as Sky Chef and Atlantic Metals. Barbara moved on to Inter-Bake Incorporated where she worked for several years as a baker.

Barbara's personality was filled with life and energy. She made many friends by traveling around the city and participating in various programs where she loved to meet new people. She opened her arms and her home to any one in need. She touched the hearts of many people over her lifetime and was frequently deemed, "Aunt Barbara". Barbara loved her music, old school and new school. She also loved to dance as well.

On May 23rd 2013 Barbara was called home. However her life, love and legacy will definitely live on forever. Barbara was predeceased on the journey home by her husband, James Brown and siblings, Hilda Robinson, Earline Robinson, Ruth Anne McNair, Harry James Robinson, and Richard Charles Robinson.

She leaves to mourn her two children, Rhonda and James Robinson; Her brothers John Edward (Margaret) Robinson, Milton Robinson, Clarence Earl Robinson, and Irvine (Alzeem) Robinson. They remain to remember her life. Barbara also leaves behind a son-in-law, Lavone Fahrid Broxton and daughter-in-law, Millie Irizarry, five grandchildren, James Jr., Queen, Siiera and Kiiera Robinson, and also Tiiera Broxton. Barbara leaves behind a plethora of nieces, nephews, relatives and a host of friends. Barbara will be loved and missed by all who knew her.
