Reflections of Life

Elder Harvey Hanson Strickland, Jr. entered eternal rest on June 20, 2013 in Newark, NJ. Harvey was born on February 12, 1948 to the late Harvey Hanson and Annie Pearl Strickland in Clinton, NC.

He attended the public schools in Clinton and graduated from Sampson High School. In 1966, Harvey moved to NJ and later built his own business, Strickland Flooring and Home Improvement.

Harvey grew up learning to serve God in the Sampson Chapel Disciple Church in Clinton. He enjoying singing praises, playing the guitar and piano.

He was ordained as an Elder at Second Timothy Church in 1985 and later became the pastor of Christian Baptist Church, in Newark, NJ. He served in numerous leadership capacities. One of his goals was to live and serve God through biblical precepts and examples of Christian love in his church, home, community and other outreach services. He attended Bible classes at the Joshua Bible School and earned a degree in Theology. He was a faithful soldier for the Lord.

Harvey loved his family. He leaves to cherish his memories: his devoted wife of 46 years, Bettie; two daughters, Anita Strickland (Jerry Brown) and Cecilia Jackson; two grandchildren, Amina Brown and Keith Jackson, Jr. all of Irvington, NJ; his mother, Annie Pearl Strickland; two sisters, Pastor Ann Mosson (Bishop Larry) and Dr. Linda Brunson; one brother, Charles Strickland (Linda); one niece, Cathy Strickland; two nephews, Jesse Bronson and Charles Strickland, Jr.; one great nephew, Zyair Strickland; two great nieces, Ashleigh and Arianna Strickland all of Clinton, NC.

He will also be missed by his uncle Jasper Strickland (Mary) of Brooklyn, NY; mother-in-law, Mary Best; four sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law; and a host of family and friends.

He will be missed by all.

*Weep not my loved ones for me
For it as God who came to set me free.
Just the other day he called my name
And very soon the angel came
For down here, I've done my best
Now God has a place for me
Where There's Eternal Rest.*

*To Our Many Friends and Family
Perhaps you said a lovely prayer
Or sat quietly in a chair,
perhaps you sent some pretty flowers,
If so, we see them here.
Perhaps you said or spoke a kind word
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you are not here in person,
But just thinking of us today.
Whatever you have done in any way
To console our broken hearts,
We thank you so much for every deed
However you played your part.*

Acknowledgements

*Our family wishes to extend our sincere thanks and gratitude to everyone for your prayers and support during this difficult time of bereavement.
God bless you for showing much love.*
