

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.

Reflections of Life

John Hogges, Jr. was born February 18, 1946 in Passaic, New Jersey to Perrie L. Hogges and John Hogges, Sr.

John was known as "Boot and L.J." by his family and his friends. At an early age, John accepted Jesus Christ into his life. John attended the public schools in Passaic. He was employed at Sun Chemical & Shulton until it's closing.

He lived the life of a simple man who loved to watch sports on T.V. (especially baseball) and he also loved to play the New Jersey rub-offs. Where he lived he always tried to help anyone that he could whenever they asked him. John was the seeing eyes of who came into or out of the building at 498 Boulevard. He was loved much by his family and his neighbors. One could say he was a man with good family and friends.

John was predeceased by his father, John, Sr. and two brothers, James and Marveles.

John went to his eternal rest Thursday, June 20, 2013 at St. Mary's Hospital in Passaic, New Jersey after being ill for a short time.

John is survived by: his mother, Perrie L. Hogges; two brothers, Eric and Samuel; one sister, Larzora; three aunts, Ollie Lewis, Rosa King and Felmen Singleton; two uncles, Rollen Hogges and James (Rock) King; one sister-in-law, Janice (Diane) Hogges; special friends, Percy and Vivian Jackson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
