Obituary

Kahlil Marquise Battle "Chubbz" was born August 11, 1993 in Livingston, NJ to proud parents Selena Michelle Lucas and Marion Melvin Battle. In 2011 he was baptized to the love of the Lord. On June 25, 2013, Kahlil departed this earthly life.

Kahlil graduated from Irvington High School and attended Essex County College.

Kahlil leaves to cherish his precious memories: his siblings, Isaiah Battle and Jameel Battle; grandmother, Mary Lucas of Nashville, NC; five uncles, seven aunts; special companion, Shana White; and a host of cousins and friends.

The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come. He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness. Isaiah 57:1-2

Kahlil

Loving memories will never depart many hearts are broken forever. You were kind, gentle, humble, respectful and loved by all. Just to know you was to love you. Life will never be the same. Pieces of family and friends will always be with you. Too young.

Too precious. Too soon. My love. My son. My heart.

Love you forever Mommy

Beloved

Under the apple tree I roused you there your mother conceived you there she who was in labor gave you birth. Place me like a seal over your head like a seal on your arm; for love is as strong as death, its jealousy, unyielding as the grave. It burns like blazing fire, like a mighty flame. Many waters cannot quench love; rivers cannot wash it away, if one were to give all the wealth of his house for love it would be utterly scorned.

Peace for the righteous at death.

The righteous perish, and no one ponders it in his heart; devout men are taken away, and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil. Those who walk uprightly enter into peace; they find rest as they lie in death.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express their thanks and appreciation for all heart felt prayers, flowers, kind words, cards, food, monetary support, comfort and nothing but sincere love. We will always remember that you cared so much. Kahlil will be deeply missed and loved. The family received the same message from all of you.
