

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

James A. Robinson departed this life on June 23, 2013 at Newark Beth Israel Medical Center in Newark, New Jersey. James was born on March 29, 1944 in South Hill, Virginia.

James grew up in Mecklenburg County, Virginia where he attended and graduated from the public school system. He briefly served in the United States Army. He soon relocated to Long Island where he began his career with the Nassau County Department of Public Works.

James met and married Carol Ann Porter and their union blessed them with one child; Windi.

James loved his family and he loved life. He was affectionately called 'Pete' by family members. You would never catch him without a baseball cap on his head. He was an avid fan of all sports. He joined Christ Temple Church under its founder, Dr. D.H. Green. He was later ordained deacon where he was a faithful servant until his health began to fail.

James retired as a supervisor with the Nassau County Department of Public Works in 2009 after diligently working over thirty years for them.

James is preceded in death by his first wife- the late Carol Ann Porter; his second wife- the late Gladys Robinson; his companion- the late Darcell Brooks; his birth parents- the late James Edward Bragg and the late Mattie Hatcher and his adoptive parents, the late Stafford and Mattie Bell Robinson.

He leaves to mourn their loss: daughter Windi Robinson of Newark, NJ; brother John Winston Robinson, brother Michael Robinson, sister Aileen R. Lewis and her husband James E. Lewis, aunt Nannie B. Tisdale- all of South Hill, Virginia; aunt Louise Hopkins from Detroit, MI and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
