Obituary

James Allen Mann was born March 14th 1944 in Scranton, North Carolina to the late Edward Mann and Hattie Mann. He departed this life on June 28th 2013.

At the age of eight years old his mother and eight children migrated to New York City. He was the youngest of the eight children. He accepted Christ at an early age.

James was educated in the New York Public School system. He worked in the retail business and the Theater District.

After an accident in 2007, he was forced to retire. For the past couple of years he has been in failing health.

James was always friendly and outgoing. To his wife he was “Jim”, to his sisters, he was “Baby Boy” and to his friends he was ‘Fats’.

He was preceded in death by one son, Joseph Edward Mann and two brothers, Wilbur Mann and Hubert Mann.

He leaves to mourn him: his wife, Winnie Mann; two sons, Anthony Jones and Derek Jones; four sisters, Hattie Mann, Esther Coleman, Marie Mann and Mary Blackwell; one brother, Ernest Mann; grandchildren; nieces, nephews; and a host of relatives and friends.

We will miss you.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
