Reflections of Life

Quenay Lasheema Cox was born on April 7, 1993 to Abraham McKinnon and Tabatha Cox.

She received her education from the Paterson Public School system. She was employed by Fairway Market, Little Falls, NJ.

Quenay was full of life. She was very optimistic and always looked on the bright side of every obstacle. She had a smile that gave the stars in the sky true competition.

Quenay was affectionately called "Mama" by family and close friends. She was always camera ready. She liked to dance and listen to music. Most important to her was her time spent in comforts and surrounding of her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her aunt, Priscilla Sellers.

Quenay leaves to cherish her memories: her father, Abraham McKinnon; mother Tabatha Cox; sisters, Trenay Cox, Kehirea McKinnon; godsister, Tanzania McKnight; nieces, Quanaya and Zah'nae; nephews, Ka'mir and Diovion; aunts and uncles of South Carolina, Valarie, Melvina, Patrina, Nathan, Theresa, Shirley, Ruby, Treva, Rodney, Troy, Dexter and Marvin; great aunt, Lillie Mae Edwards; and a host of other relatives and friends.

To The Cox-McKinnon Family

There are a thousand and one ways to die and four types of death (Emotional, Mental, Physical, and Spiritual). When the death of a loved one happens, our lives take on a new meaning. It's a struggle everyday trying to cope with death. However throughout all the struggles, heartaches and pain we have to remember that GOD gives us enough trials to keep us strong. Enough sorrow to keep us human. Enough hope to keep us happy. Enough failure to keep us humble during our struggles. Enough success to keep us eager from taking a loss in a venture. Enough wealth to meet our current needs. Enough faith to drive out depression and enough determination to make each day a better day than yesterday. So whatever death you or a family member maybe going through just realize that as long as you have GOD in your life the coping becomes easier.

Praise GOD!!!
