Obituary

Mary Singletary was born on July 25, 1951 in Hemingway South Carolina to the late Mr. Wesley and Elizabeth McGill Singletary. Mary had a total of seven brothers and one sister.

Mary was raised in Hemingway South Carolina. She graduated from Hemingway High School and attended Morris College.

Mary was employed with Hemingway Apparel for sixteen year, Williamsburg County South Carolina School System ten years, New Jersey School system ten years and Franchise Restaurants in South Carolina for five years.

Mary accepted God early in her life and ensured that both her kids grow up with a strong spiritual foundation. She was a warm, kind and caring person that made every effort to assist anyone in need. She made special efforts to remain in contact with family and friends to check their well being and consistently provide them with moral support and words of encouragement. She was an outstanding mother to both her kids and took a special interest in raising every second generation kid within her family. She devoted her life to being an ambassador of good will towards others and giving to others selflessly.

Mary left us July 7, 2013 at sixty-one years of age. She is preceded in death by her parents and five brothers (Lofton, John, Jimmie, Woodrow (Woody) and Sammy). She leaves behind to cherish her memories two sons, LaMar (Michelle) Singletary of San Antonio, Texas and Javon S. (Beverly) Singletary of Orange New Jersey. She leaves two brothers, Willie James (Onita) Singletary of Hillside New Jersey and King (Mary Francis) Singletary of Hemingway South Carolina. She leaves one Grandson LaMar C. Singletary II of San Antonio, Texas, one Godchild Maria C. Singletary (God Daughter/Niece) of Hemingway South Carolina, Beverly Wilson (Sisters Daughter/Niece) of Newark New Jersey and a host of other Nieces and Nephews. We would all like to thank you all for your overwhelming kindness and support. God Bless you all.

*Because of you, aunt/mom
I am a better me
Strong, because I know
You've got my back,
Smart, because I've always
Had the benefit of
Your knowledge and wisdom.
Inspired, because you taught me
How to truly live,
And loving, because you gave so much
Love to me.*

*Lovingly submitted,
Your niece, Beverly*
