

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Adonis Darius Clark was born August 31, 1994 to the union of Mary Clark and Joel Raymond Robinson in Jersey City, New Jersey. He left the world on July 4th 2013. He graduated P.S. #41 and attended Henry Snyder High School.

Adonis was a young man full of laughter and smiles. If you were having a bad day, Adonis's presence was sure to change your mood and bring happiness.

Adonis was an avid fan of good music, video games and a sports fanatic. His favorite teams were the New England Patriots and the Miami Heat.

Adonis will always be remembered for his lovable personality; respect and calm nature. If you needed something, Adonis would be the first to extend a helping hand, without complaining.

Adonis was a hard worker. His jobs included catering, custodial work and landscaping. He always got the job done, even if he was not feeling well.

Adonis leaves his memories with his parents; five siblings, Tyquan Clark, Dominique Clark (Marvin Dennis), Candice Clark, Joel Clark and Sharneese Clark; one niece, Jamaya Clark; one nephew, Marvin Dennis, Jr.; close friends, Kyle Gabbidon, Ta'jai Payton; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and extended family.
