Obituary

Adrienne Morrison was born on July 17, 1953 in Newark, NJ. Infinite wisdom called his faithful child to eternal rest on July 9, 2013. Adrienne was one of five children born to her parents Ralph Guthrie, Sr. and Geraldine Jones Guthrie.

She graduated from Central High School (Newark) in 1971 and then she went onto continue her studies at Essex County College in 1973.

Adrienne spent most of her life in Newark, NJ where she met her future husband, Carl K. Morrison in 1978. Carl and Adrienne were married in 1980. Previously God blessed Adrienne with a son and some years afterwards God blessed Carl and Adrienne with another son.

Adrienne worked for Bamberger's/Macy's for over eighteen years. She was a woman of substance and diligence who was an incredibly hard worker with a lively spirit and a keen sense of humor. She loved to dance and was very fashionable. Her greatest recreational passion was bowling. Even though on January 11, 2005, her husband, Carl passed away she continued to work and care for her youngest son Jamil Morrison.

Adrienne, was one of the those rare individuals whose faith, compassion, and generosity were boundless. Her memory will be cherished by a host of family and friends.

Adrienne is survived by her children, Jamil C. Morrison, Ulysses A. Guthrie; her grandson, Kareem M. Gutrie; her daughter-in-law, Diane Guthrie; her siblings, Yvonne McConnaughey, Ralph Guthrie, Jr., Terry Guthrie and Robin Smith; and a whole host of aunts, uncles, cousins and close friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, Ralph Guthrie, Sr., and Geraldine Jones Guthrie; her sister Madeline Jasey.

Miss Me,

But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
