Come To Me

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, "Come to me"
With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you pass away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Louise L. Gay, widow of the late Jay B. Gay, daughter of the late Conrad and Elizabeth Jackson, was born on June 10, 1931 in Jersey City, NJ. Louise was one of eleven children, eight of whom preceded her in death, Sarah Nofflet, Carmen Williams, Ruth Jackson, Conrad Jackson, Jr., Theodore Jackson, Nathaniel Jackson, William Jackson and Jean Thomas.

Louise was educated in the Jersey City School system and graduated from Henry B. Snyder High School.

Louise then went on to work for the New York Telephone Company as a Switch Board Operator for at least twenty-five years before her retirement.

Louise always enjoyed going to the movies, playing the lottery and going to the racetrack as well as shopping and most of all visiting with her family.

Aunt Louise was always interested in any and all family functions. If she could get there she was there "front row and center". Aunt Louise was a devoted member of Christ the King Catholic Church for over sixty-five years "65".

Louise L. Gay is survived by: two sisters, Rose L. Jackson of Jersey City, NJ and Eleanor E. Jackson of Baltimore, Maryland and four generations of nieces and nephews as well as her longtime friend, Mrs. Mary Leach. And she will be truly missed by all that knew and loved her.
