

Missing You

(By Tanisha Williams)

Now that you're gone

The memories remain of what you use to be
Your beautiful smile, the sound of your laugh
Your heart of gold, those big brown eyes filled with love
But most of all, the love you gave
You always had faith, you never gave up
You always found a way to make us see
How great God is indeed
We will never forget the times we shared
Watching Wheel of Fortune, watching Family Feud
Watching Jeopardy, but most of all talking with you
You always had a way with words, a way to make us see
But most of all make us believe, you helped us see why
You had to leave, your spirit was strong, your body was weak
God saw you struggle, God felt your pain, God held out His hand
You grasped it tight, no more pain
No more struggles, just the comforts of Heaven
With each day that passes, we will miss you even more.

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
