Obituary

Helen L. Jones was born to the late Minnie Wells and Roosevelt Wells, Sr. on March 18, 1940. She was born in Greenville, Mississippi and moved to New York at the age of eighteen years old. She married her husband, Jessie Jones, Jr. in the year of 1957.

Helen graduated from Malcolm King College in New York with an Associates Degree in 1983. Helen was employed by the Board of Education as a Para Professional (she loved to teach) until she became very ill in the year of 2000.

Helen really loved her family very much and she wanted us all to stay in contact with one another. Helen was baptized as a Jehovah's Witness on October 12, 1996.

Helen's mother, father, Roosevelt Wells, Jr. (Brother) and Sharon A. Jones Jackson (daughter) preceded her in death.

Helen departed this life on Wednesday, July 24, 2013.

She leaves to cherish the memories of her life: Jessie Jones, Jr. (husband); Debra L. Jones (daughter); four grandchildren, Latoya, Andre, Chivonne and Rajib; seven great grandchildren, Tiara, Tiasia, Davonte, Andrell, Amber, Tyheem and Skyla; one great-great grandson, Jayden; one uncle, John Wells; one son-in-law, James E. Jackson; one sister-in-law, Margaret McComb; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

She would often say "while other people talk, you take care of your own business".

Dear Nana,

I was truly blessed to have you in my life. A loving, generous, affectionate grandmother. I will always remember our phone conversations and my one of a kind nickname you gave me "Lovlawn lovey". Nana I'm happy your not suffering anymore but I feel selfish because I had to let you go. I love you and know you will always be with me. I will also cherish everything you've taught me.

Love always, Latoya

Dear Mom,

I am truly missing your beautiful smile and my daily visits of seeing you. I feel comfortable knowing that you are no longer suffering and in a much better place. I am the link to keeping the family together as you would have wanted.

Your loving daughter, Debra
