Obituary

Marcella Ruth Cooper also known as "Sister" was born to Alma and Henry Fields on March 10, 1931. She graduated from Washington Irving High School. Sister worked in Harlem Hospital until she retired. She married her childhood sweetheart, Jerome Cooper on June 25, 1950 and had sixty-three wonderful years with him.

She was best known for her knitting, crocheting, needlepoint and sewing especially baby gifts. Sister was also a very good baker lets not forget her famous Rum and Carrot Cakes. She always made people feel at home in her house.

From the union between Marcella and Jerome Cooper they had five children four boys and one girl.

She leaves to mourn her husband: Jerome, sons: Michael and Steven, daughter: Joan, sister-in-law: Carrie, daughter-in-law: Cynthia, a host of grandchildren, and great grandchildren, grand nieces, grand nephews, cousins and a host of friends.

*We will miss you Sis
You will always be in our hearts
As your loving husband Jerome would say
That's my girl!*

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears,
And hug your sorrow to you through the years.
But start out bravely with a gallant smile,
And for my sake, and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways.
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*
