Obituary

Hyacinth Lengo was born April 20, 1903 in Kingston, Jamaica to the proud parents of Fred and Roseline Copeland. She departed this life on August 9, 2013. Hyacinth was affectionately known as Ma, Granny, MaMa Lengo and Miss Lengo.

Hyacinth and family moved to Panama where they lived until she arrived in the United States. She had a spirit of self-sacrifice and to know her was to love her.

Hyacinth met and married the late Joeseph Lengo from Congo Africa and from that union she gave birth to three daughters, Icielda, Josephine (deceased), and Gloria (deceased). Years later Hyacinth received her first and only grandchild, Joseph Law (deceased) which she loved and adored.

She joined Mt. Calvary Baptist Church in the early 1950's and remained a faithful member until she was called home. When she could no longer attend church services, some of the members would bring church to her home. One of the members would bring a sweet potato pie that was so delicious it would melt in your mouth. The church family would also donate items from their pantry, which was wonderful. The family would like to thank Mt. Calvary Church for your kindness and support over the years.

Hyacinth leaves to mourn: one daughter, Icielda Lengo; one granddaughter-in-law, Sonia Peterson; two great granddaughters, Stella Dora Peterson and Kawanna Peterson; three great great grandchildren, Tyla, Tiana, and Joseph and one great-great-great grandchild, Aubriey; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends; one goddaughter, Willie Mae Williams, (Pumpkin), who had a special place in her heart.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Expression of Gratitude

The family members of Hyacinth Lengo wish to extend our sincerest thanks of appreciation for all of the love and support shown during this time of bereavement. A special thanks to Hyacinth Lengo's caretaker Miss Linda. Please keep us in your prayers, and may God continue to bless each one of you..
