

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Gregory P. King was born on November 21, 1949 in Newark, New Jersey to Mr. Perry King and Ms. Julia King (Hill). He was predeceased by his father Mr. Perry King.

Gregory was baptized at an early age at Mount Calvary Baptist Church, and was educated in the Newark School System graduating from South Side High School (Shabazz) after graduating from school, he worked for the City of Newark as a Street Cleaner later working many years for St. Michael's Medical Center until he retired in 2008.

Gregory loved to listen to various types of music and asking trivia questions. He loved people and his mom dearly.

His memory will always live in the heart of: his mother, Ms. Julia King (Hill); Mr. Michael Borough (childhood friend); one aunt, Ms Mary Carr; one uncle, Mr. Joe Hill; and other relatives and friends.
