

God's Promise of Paradise

(Luke 23:43)

A paradise our God has promised,
By means of Christ's Millennial Reign,
When he'll blot out all sin and error,
Removing death and tears and pain.

CHORUS:

A paradise the earth will be.
With eyes of faith this we can see.
This promise Christ shall soon fulfill,
For he delights to do God's will.

Soon here on earth, for God so purposed,
His Son will cause the dead to rise.
It was the promise of Christ Jesus:
'You'll be with me in Paradise.'

(CHORUS)

Yes, Paradise our Lord did promise.
And he is now earth's rightful King.
So let us thank our God, Jehovah.
Do leap for joy; his praises sing.

(CHORUS)

Obituary

Ludene Clark was born on February 3, 1933 to Addie and Lucille Clark in Charlotte County, Virginia. She attended the public schools of Charlotte County and graduated in 1950. Seeking employment, Ludene relocated to Newark, New Jersey in 1952.

In 1982, "Ludy", as she was affectionately known to family and friends, dedicated her life in service to Jehovah and was baptized. Upon her retirement from the United States Postal Service, she began her pioneering work. The joy she received from witnessing the Word of Jehovah was illustrated in her daily activities. Through sunshine, rain, sleet and snow, she was always there on a daily basis.

Ludene leaves to honor her memory: five sisters, Pauline McGhee (East Orange, NJ), Christine Williams (Cincinnati, OH), Louise Lee (Newark, NJ), Irene Salley (Chase City, VA), Claudine Clark (East Orange, NJ); two brothers, Harold Clark (Richmond, VA) and Nathaniel Clarke (Centreville, VA). In addition, there are a host of other relatives and friends.
