Ethel Fields Moore

(Lee Ester Fields Moore)

Ethel Fields Moore was born Lee Ester Fields on April 1, 1921 in Walterboro, South Carolina, daughter of Emma Smiley Fields and Charles Fields. She lived in Brooklyn, New York before moving to Plainfield 37 years ago.

Ethel met the love of her life, Douglas Moore and they were joined in holy matrimony. This union was blessed with 3 children, Emily, Gloria, and Douglas.

Ethel was employed as an Administrative Assistant at Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn, New York for 28 years before she retired in 1978.

Ethel Moore departed this life on Thursday, August 15, 2013 at the age of 92. She was predeceased by her husband, Douglas Moore, her son Theodore, 2 brothers, (Charles) Bennie Fields and Elias Fields and 2 sisters, Ruth Smalls and Gertrude Woods.

Ethel loved to spend her spare time planting and caring for her plants and flowers, or crocheting blankets for members of the family. She frequently traded plant cuttings and crochet patterns with her sisters.

She leaves to cherish fond memories, daughters, Gloria Moore-Fulmore and her husband, Arthur of South Ozone Park, NY and Emily Winn of Brooklyn, NY; a son, Douglas Charles Moore and his wife, Tanya Moore of Montclair, NJ; a sister, Shirley Davis of Germantown, MD; a brother, Sylvester Fields of Pittsburgh, PA; 5 grandchildren, Edward E. Winn of Long Island, NY, Adrienne Winn of Columbia, SC, Eric A. Fulmore of Queens, NY, Stephanie M. Fulmore of Queens, NY and Asjah Michelle Moore of Montclair, NJ; 4 great grandchildren, Tyneeka D. Winn of Columbia, SC, Brandon Winn of Long Island, NY, Tynequa Winn of Brooklyn, NY, and Selena Winn of Montclair, NJ; and a host of great great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“Miss Me But Let Me Go”

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
