

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers, if so we saw them there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend would say. Perhaps you weren't there at all, but thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part. We ask that you please keep us in prayer. God bless each and everyone of you.

Obituary

On Monday, August 19, 2013, God called from our midst our dearly beloved, Eugene Lewis.

Eugene was born June 12, 1933, to Mary and Collin Lewis. He attended P.S. 5, Frederick Douglas J.H.S. and graduated from Food Trade High School. He joined the U.S. Air Force in 1955 and served his country for ten years, where he earned a Certificate for Food Services and where he cooked for Generals, Officers, Airmen and civilians. He received a letter of congratulations and appreciation for a job well done from the U.S. Air Force, Homer, Alaska. Cooking was a craft he loved.

When he returned home from the Air Force in 1985, he got a job with the Transit Authority where he worked as a Conductor until he retired after twenty years of service. He enjoyed his retirement until his illness. He fought a gallant battle and God in his wisdom called him home.

He leaves to mourn him: his daughter, Regina Lewis and her husband Donovan; his son, Kevin Lewis; his brother, Raymond Lewis; his grandchildren, Rachel, Donielle, Rockelle, Kia and Alonzo; his long time partner, Brenda Tyson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
