Obituary

Eleazer Cyril Hampden Pinder born in Harlem, NY January 23, 1974 to Ms. Patricia Ann Pinder and the late Mr. Horace Vincent Pinder, Sr. He was the youngest of three children.

Eleazer AKA “Cyril” and/or “E” grew up in a loving and non judgemental home. As a child Cyril loved going camping and farming with family where he developed a love for animals. Cyril was very explorative and loved science. If you wanted to know about how to build something for your science project ask Cyril and he would be on it!

Cyril attended P.S. 144 where he made lots of friends and was an excellent student. He then attended and graduated from Wadleigh Junior High School. One who would challenge him mentally was Masidean Williams. They would debate who was the most intelligent.

Cyril then went onto Julia Richmond High School, he graduated and moved onto BMCC for Nursing. He inspired everyone he met. He worked as a Pastry Chef at Credit Suisse his second home LOL! He would exchange recipes from childhood with LaTasha all the time. But she couldn’t get the pastries right. He would hang out with his two best friends/brothers, Muhamaad Ali Gordon and Shawkane Spencer. After losing his brother the late Horace Vincent Pinder, Jr. at the age of thirty-two. He bonded even more with Shawkane and Ali, when you saw one you saw the other.

If you had a problem, he would try to find a solution to solve it. If you needed to vent, he would lend his ear and give you encouragement. It was very rare you seen him upset or baffled by anything.

He was a great cook, baker, son, brother and friend and will be missed. On August 10, 2013 he was called home to be with God.

He leaves his legacy to: his mother, Patricia Ann Pinder; sister, Jean Danielle Pinder; nephew, Horace Vincent III; adopted sister, LaTasha Spencer Jordan; best friend/brothers, Shawkane Spencer and Muhamaad Ali Gordan; Masidean Williams; The Wilson family and a host of other relatives and friends.

If Tomorrow Never Comes

If I knew it would be the last time I'd see you fall asleep, I would tuck you in more tightly and pray the Lord, your soul to keep, If I knew it would be the last time that I see you walk out the door, I would give you a hug and kiss and call you back for more. If I knew it would be the last time I'd hear your voice lifted in praise, I would video tape each action and word, so I could play them back day after day. If I knew it would be the last time, I could spare an extra minute or two to stop and say "I Love You", instead of assuming you would KNOW I do. If I knew it would be the last time I would be there to share your day, well I'm sure you'll have so many more, so I can let just this one slip away. For surely there's always tomorrow to make up for an oversight, and we always get a second chance to make everything right. There will always be another day to say our "I love you's", And certainly there's another chance to say our "Anything I can do's?" But just in case I might be wrong, and today is all I get, I'd like to say how much I love you and I hope you never forget, Tomorrow is not promised to anyone, young or old alike, And today may be the last chance you get to hold your loved one tight. So if you're waiting for tomorrow, why not do it today? For if tomorrow never comes, you'll surely regret the day, That you didn't take that extra time for a smile, a hug, or a kiss and you were too busy to grant someone, what turned out to be their one last wish. So hold your loved ones close today, whisper in their ear, Tell them how much you love them and that you'll always hold them dear, Take time to say "I'm sorry," "please forgive me," "thank you" or "it's okay". And if tomorrow never comes, you'll have NO regrets about Today.
