Reflections of Life

On a warm sunny day, Mr. Richard Tyrone Chinn was born on July 9, 1951 in Newark, NJ to the late Raymond J. Chinn Sr. and the late Agnes Lee Harris Chinn.

Richard attended school in Newark, NJ.

Richard enlisted in the United States Army.

Richard was baptized on April 27, 1975 at St. Mark Unified Freewill Baptist Church.

Richard was a cabinet maker and also a maintenance supervisor for Quitman St. School.

On August 16, 2013, after a short illness, God called Richard out of this world to rest his soul.

Richard was predeceased by his parents, Raymond J. and Agnes Lee Harris Chinn; one brother, Leonard and two sisters, Gloria and Patricia.

Richard leaves to mourn: his sister, Carole LaVern Chinn; one brother, Raymond Chinn Jr.; one sister-in-law, Jessica L. Chinn; five nieces, Constance, Stephanie, Natasha, Raven and Jada; four nephews, Raymond, Hopeton Sr., Melvin, Lawrence and Vernon; friend, Ms. Linda Marie Evans; many great-nephews and nieces; and a host of relatives, friends and acquaintances.

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all you lands! Serve the Lord with gladness, come before his presence with singing. Know that the Lord, He is God. It is He who has made us and not we ourselves; we are His people and the sheep of his pasture. Psalm 100

Psalm 100 - Sunrise to Sunset

Remarks from Sister: Richard was a jolly baby with a fat rosey face who cheeks I like to bite. He was always full of life and knowledge and believed in the Lord. He loved to dance and play the drums. Music was everything to him. He would always say "I'm going to enjoy myself no matter what anybody says." and he did. (Read Psalm 24)

Thank you and God Bless You. - - - Your Sister

Richard Tyrone Chinn My Friend

I know you hate that name, Tyrone

Your mother like it

That's why I like to say it.

Richard Tyrone Chinn

You were on duty, a soldier

In the army of the Lord.

Looking out for me.

Long ago, you took me home with you,

To live with your mother

Right on time, an angel in my life

You were and are to me.

Thank you

Your best friend,

Linda Marie Evans

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
Now that my life is done.*
