Reflections of Life

Reginald Williams better known as (King Heavenly Allah) was born to Betty Ann Zuell and Frank Williams in the Bronx New York on January 8, 1963. Reginald's life began right there on Belmont Avenue. He was an active student who participated in various sports and graduated from Morris High School.

King devoted his life to teaching the young and had a compassionate heart to assist the elderly. He was a respectable merchant in his hood. His business savvy resulted in many years of a successful sole-proprietorship. King was definitely old school, as most of us, he enjoyed listening to the Chi-lites, Moments, O'Jays and Delfonics. King spent hours watching his collection of martial arts movies. He had the agility and finesse just like some of the actors he admired in the movies. Some of us might have seen King picking that Afro to get that "just right roundness". He always was meticulous about his clothes and appearance. It had to be just right!

King loved his family dearly and always looked forward to spending time with his brothers. At times he was quiet but always commanded a strong dignified presence. Reginald was the third of seven siblings. They are dearly mentioned Tony (deceased), Franklin, Angelo, Francine, Patrick and Patricia.

To cherish his memory are his loving children, Reggie, Elquinn, Andre and Vanessa. He was blessed to have Elquinn Jr., Janya, DeAndre and his grandchildren and a host of nephews: T.J., Brandon, TyShawn, Shaheem, Raquan, Dominick and nieces, Tiffany, Asia, Shaquassia, Shanquill, Shantell, Startasia, and his second Mom's Aunt Annie and host of aunts, uncles, cousins and special friends.

Crossing The Bar

*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;
For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.*

Acknowledgement

The family express their sincere thanks and gratitude to all of you for your communication of sympathy, your presence, and all acts rendered to comfort them in their time of bereavement. Your prayers and words of consolation warms our hearts and lifted our spirits. May God continue to dwell in your hearts and continue to bless all of you in a very special way.
