

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Tyson McCullars, Sr. departed this life on August 13, 2013 at the Newark Beth Israel Medical Center in Newark, NJ. He was born on March 12, 1965 to Mrs. Ruby Bryant of Acron, Ohio.

He attended Shabazz High School where he played football and later attended Montclair State College.

Tyson was known to be a good, fun, prolonging person and friend to all. Everyone knew him as a person with a good heart and always with a smile. As a wonderful father and a very close male figure to his nephews he enjoyed Sunday Football games with his son, Tyson, Jr. and nephews, Kabir (Sidekick) and Girard (Cowboys).

He leaves to cherish his memories: his two children, Tyson McCullars, Jr. and Tyaesse McCullars; sisters, Kamala Conway, Donna Taylor, and Jeanette McCullars; brother, Marvin Flowers (Mae); nephews, Michael Jerome Leviston, Kabir Conway, II, Girard, Jamaal Taylor, Zair Conway, and Ahasda Conway. To his beloved Rachael Jackson his heart was with you. He is also survived by Zaniyah and Zahid; and a host of nieces, other nephews, godchildren, family and friends.
