Obituary

Mamie Trumelle Alston, also known as “Trudy” and “Nana” was born January 12, 1927 and went home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, September 3, 2013.

Trumelle was the seventh of ten children born to Ernest William and Charlotte Taylor Alston in Chatham County, North Carolina. She was raised in the East White Oak Community of Greensboro, North Carolina.

Trumelle attended school in the Guilford County School system of Greensboro, NC. She attended Bennett College in Greensboro where she was a band member. As a young adult, she moved to New York City where she resided for the remainder of her life. Trumelle worked as a supervisor at a garment manufacturing company in the New York City Garment District until her retirement in the year 1997.

Trumelle was a member of West End Presbyterian Church of New York City.

Trumelle was preceded in death by her husband, Wilbur Haley in 1983, and is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Myrtle A. Weekes and Mrs. Catherine McGibbony- Kinsey, both of Greensboro, NC, and the children of her sister, Katie Cox (deceased) whom she raised as a mother, Kenneth Cox, Ernest Cox, Nolan Cox, Robert Cox (deceased), and their children, Ashley Cox, Bethany Cox, Diamond Cox, Kenneth Cox, and Nolan Cox Jr., all of New York City. She also leaves a host of nieces, great nieces, nephews, great nephews, family and friends, including her lifelong friend, Ms. Stevie English of Greensboro, NC.

Trumelle was considered to be fun-loving, exciting and full of energy and life by her family and friends, and loved jazz music. She was raised in the Christian faith, and reaffirmed her faith as a Christian in the latter period of her life. She was truly loved and will be greatly missed. It was a pleasure to have known in this life.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
