Obituary

A Life Well Lived

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Finally, there is laid up for me the CROWN OF RIGHTEOUSNESS, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing." (2 Timothy 4:7-8)

JAMES MARSHALL WHITE, JR., we celebrate the home going of James Marshall White, Jr. affectionately called "Jimmy" known for his colorful personality and nurturing ways. Jimmy was born on November 7, 1941, in Cleveland, Tennessee. He came to New York at the age of 13. Jimmy was the eldest of five children born to the late James Marshall and Viola White. He accepted Christ at an early age and became a member of the Astoria Baptist Church in Long Island, New York. Jimmy was predeceased by four siblings: Wallace, Delores, Benny and Darnell.

He received his early education in the New York Public Schools in Astoria. As a young man, he started his work career at the theater in Astoria. Later in his adulthood, he worked for many years as a self-employed proprietor.

Jimmy was extremely sensitive to humanity and a determined man to always lend a helping hand and to share whatever he had for his fellowman. It was because of these qualities that he made innumerable friends. He shall be greatly missed by his family, friends, colleagues, and neighbors alike. Devoted to his family and true to his friends, his pleasant smile and gentle ways shall be remembered by all who knew him.

On September 9, 2013, God called him home from labor to reward. He leaves to mourn three daughters: Yolanda Butler, Sue White and Princess White; and two sons: Kaream White and Bryan White; six grandchildren: Faith, Mahdi, Silas, Quincy, King and London; two aunts: Otis D. Rucker and Carolyn Carson-Williams. He also leaves to cherish his memory a long-time companion, Susan King and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

*We do not lose the ones we love,
They only go before,
Where there is everlasting life,
And sorrow is no more,
But after a lonely heart aches,
And many a silent tear,
There will always be a beautiful memory
Of the one we love so dear.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
