Obituary

*A virtuous woman of noble character was Amy Rose Hall;
she was worth far more than rubies and lacks nothing of value.
She brings joy, peace and love to all those she came in contact with.*

Amy Rose Hall, affectionately known as “Miss D” was born on July 8, 1925, in Madras District of St. Ann, Jamaica. She made her transition to be with the Lord on Friday, September 13, 2013 at 12:35 p.m. Amy the fifth of six children was born to the late Clemtina and Thomas Sawyers, being the last of all siblings walk that path.

As a resident of Englewood, New Jersey for the past twenty years, Amy engaged herself into all activities that were available. She was a devoted member of Englewood Assemble of God, who joyfully gave her time and goodwill to serve the Lord. Besides worshipping, she enjoyed gardening, singing and her favorite, dancing.

Amy’s passing marks the final chapter in her life as a loving mother, grandmother, great grandmother, great-great grandmother, cherished relative, faithful friend and neighbor. With fondness, she will be remembered for her love of family and kids, generous and joyous spirit, sense of humor and her signature hairstyles and accessories.

Amy’s love and memory will be kept and cherished forever by: five beautiful daughters, Beverly Morrison, Pearlena Hall, Andrea Hall, Behanna Currie and Melrose Hall; five loving sons, Milton Hall, Cleaveland Hall, Landford Hall, Copland Hall (pre-deceased) and Godfrey Hall; nineteen grandchildren, ten great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild. She also leaves behind an adoring circle of great nieces, nephews and a host of beloved relatives and true friends.

May her soul rest in peace.

I Am Resting

*I've parted this life my loved one,
But worry not for I am not gone,
I am merely resting.
Don't cry or mourn
For God is with you and in your hearts.
Carry on.*

*We will miss each other,
But remember God is with us all.
Be strong my loved one,
For I am not gone,
but merely resting.*
