

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Marvin Harris was born on January 27, 1947 in Newark NJ. He was the third of five children, May Harris, Neal Harris, Marvin Harris, James Harris, and Willie Harris all children of Esee Lee and Nealous Harris.

Marvin Harris was a graduate of Arts High School. He then went to further his education at Montclair State University in Montclair, NJ, where he obtained a Masters Degree in Art. He secured a career with the Newark Board of Education for over twenty years doing what he loved, teaching art to children. He spent most of his career at Alexander Street School in Newark NJ.

Marvin Harris was a very highly decorated, and loving man with a big personality, whom will be missed dearly by family and friends alike.

Marvin Harris will live on through his brother James Harris; daughters, Leah Harris, Aisha Johnson, Jeanine Brown, Candice Harris, sons, Marvin Harris Jr., and Brandon Harris.

Marvin Harris went home on September 10, 2013.
