Obituary

Pearl Elaine Miller, age 79, died Sunday, September 08, 2013 at Englewood Hospital, NJ, after a short illness.

Pearl Miller was born on June 23, 1934, in Colieville, Manchester, Jamaica W.I. She was the third of four children. After the death of her mother in 1938, she and her siblings lived with their dear aunts, Amy and Therm in Troy and New Hope, Trelawney Jamaica. Where they happily lived with their younger cousins, Paul, Trevor, Junior, Fred and Rachael to name a few.

In her late teens, she relocated to the parish of Manchester where she later got married and bore her two sons Hopeton and Barry. Pearl learned early in life that personal growth is essential for community and self improvement. Pearl had a spirit of adventure and was loved, adored and admired. To truly know her was to love her. She was witty, sharp, loving and a proud, independent person. She loved music. Her zest for life was evident especially in her laughter and when you saw her on the dance floor. She loved people and was a joy to be around.

In 1961, she migrated to London, England. She worked as a Nurse Aid and later graduated as a LPN from Totton College, England in 1969. In 1983, she migrated from England to the United States where she married E. Dempster and lived in Tenafly, New Jersey and Fort Lauderdale, Florida. She worked at the Englewood Hospital among other places. In 2012, she began studying her faith.

Pearl was preceded in death by her mother, Phillis Dobbs, father, William Miller, brother, Kenneth Williams, sister, Myrtle Elaine Gordon (nee Miller), uncles, Walter Dobbs, Luther Dobbs, Steven Dobbs and John Dobbs, aunts, Therm Vassell (nee Dobbs), Amy Brown (nee Dobbs) and Daisy Dobbs, and husband, E . Dempster

Pearl is survived by and leaves to cherish her memory of her: brother, Sydney Miller; two sons, Hopeton McLish and Barrington McLish; twelve grandchildren and four great grandchildren. She is further survived and leaves to cherish her memory by nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives. She also left behind a host of friends, colleagues, associates and admirers.

My Farewell

*Our family circle has been broken
link has gone from our chain;
But though we are parted for a while,
We know we will meet again.*

*Sometimes it's hard to understand why certain things must be, but there is a reason for it all, beyond our power to see.
The cover of life's book is closed for one we loved so well; But the loving deeds of
by-gone days are what the pages tell.
The blow was hard, the shock severe;
We never thought your death was so near.
But only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell.*
