Obituary

Mother Lurania Berry, was born on December 6, 1927 to the late Marvin Newsome and Lula Newsome in South Hampton County, Virginia.

She attended White Meadow Elementary School and High School.

Mother Berry was married in May of 1945 and to this union four children were born.

Mother Berry relocated to New Jersey in 1954 and began her career with Night Craft Inc. she worked there until she retired.

Mother Berry united with the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. W.J. Harris. She loved her church and loved the good singing.

Mother Berry loved to sew and would make alterations to anything you brought to her.

After a long illness, Mother Berry slipped away into eternal rest on Thursday, September 19, 2013.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three loving daughters, Barbara Harris, Virginia Person (William Person), Lula Jean Lane (Haywood Lane); twelve grandchildren; eleven great grandchildren; eleven great-great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

She was predeceased by her husband, son, Lessie Davis and her sisters and brothers.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.*

*A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
