Reflections of Life

Nigee Quadir Paige was born on August 10, 1989 at The Jersey City Medical Center to Crystal Paige and William Oliver Jr. His life was cut short and he was called home to be with the lord on October 13, 2013.

Nigee attended P.S. 34 Grammar School; he graduated from Create Charter High School in 2007 where he received his High School Diploma. Over the course of Nigee's life, he worked at Foot Locker in Manhattan for three years, Cargo Force, Elijah's Income Tax Service, and The Vitamin Shop. Also, Nigee served as a Boys Scout for twelve years. He enjoyed listening to music with his head phones, eating chocolate chip cookies and milk, and eating with his favorite fork. He had a special fork that he always used when he ate and no one was allowed to use it.

Nigee was known as "Sonny" to his mom and others. He was born with clubfeet and didn't learn how to walk until he was two years old. He would kick the cast off his legs and try to get around. He was a fast learner. In spite of his handicap, he never let anything stop him or get in his way. Nigee was truly a "Cool Guy" who was adored by many. He was a lovable and respectable young man who enjoyed spending time with family and friends. He was a devoted father who would do anything for his children.

Nigee leaves to cherish his memories to his mother Crystal Paige and father William Oliver Jr., grandmother Annie Dasher (maternal) and Wilbert Paige grandfather (deceased), Rose Ann Oliver (paternal) grandmother and William Oliver Sr. grandfather (deceased), his children Jayla Brown

Recessional

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've now found peace at the end of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all to brief;
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now-He set me free*

Expressions of Gratitude on Behalf of the Family
We would like to express our deepest appreciation to all those who called, sent cards, and helped us during this time of bereavement. We truly appreciate and love you for your warm wishes.
