Obituary

Virginia Black was born to the late James and Bessie Young on February 8, 1942 in Georgetown, South Carolina. Our beloved Virginia answered the call home on October 15, 2013, after a brief illness at Columbia Presbyterian Hospital, New York, NY.

In Georgetown, SC, Virginia attended Public Schools, graduating from Howard High School. At an early age, she joined First Calvary Baptist Church, a faithful and devoted member.

She was married to Richard Black, and God blessed them with one son, Curtis.

In 1960, Virginia moved to Manhattan, New York; where years later she retired from the United States Post Office.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Dingo.

Precious memories of Virginia are remembered by: one son, Curtis Black (Georgetown, SC); one daughter-in-law; two grandchildren (Georgetown, SC) one brother, James Young (Mt. Vernon, NY); one sister, Beatrice Gibbs (Baltimore, MD); two sisters-in-law, Judy Young and Sue Gibbs; special companion of forty-two years, Jose Ortiz; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and loving friends.

It Takes A Lifetime

It takes a lifetime to learn how to live:
How to share and how to give;
How to face tragedy that comes your way;
How to find courage to face each new day;
How to smile when your heart is sore;
How to go on when you can take no more;
How to laugh when you want to cry;
how to be brave when you say goodbye;
How still to love when your loss is so great.
How to forgive when your urge is to hate;
How to be sure that God is really there;
How to find him: seek him in prayer...

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
