

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Antionette George was born December 16th, 1961 in St. Petersburg, Florida to the loving parents, Liz Taylor and J.D. George. She moved to Newark, New Jersey at the age of six.

She attended Summer Avenue Elementary School, Broadway Junior High School and later graduated from Barringer High School.

Throughout her life she had many achievements. She was a member of Christian Love Baptist Church where she served on the Bereavement Ministry, she was captain of the Junior Elks Marching Band, she also attended Co-Ed where she was studying to become a nurse, she did runway modeling and excelled at doing hair, she was the jack of all trades. She was very family oriented and took care of all the kids in the family at one point or another. She loved life and kept everyone laughing. She had a beautiful soul and loved her seafood, crabs and shrimp were her favorite. She was an excellent cook and also loved to travel.

She is survived by: her parents, Liz Taylor and J.D. George; two sons, David Sheppard and Bernard Hoover, she also took in another son, Lanier Hayes that she loved dearly; two grandchildren, Tyshawn and Tyneek Hoover; two sisters, Barbara Taylor and Rendell Sowell; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends. She was also loved by the Newark Beth Israel Cancer Staff and Fred B. Cohen Center Staff.

Antoinette as predeceased by her husband, Ernest Hoover and grandparents, Rev. John and Ludell George, Oril and Rosa Davis.
