Obituary

Denton Lloyd Palmer, was born May 29, 1957 to Percival and Hermin Palmer in Kingston, Jamaica. He resided on the island of Jamaica until his mid-thirties and then immigrated to the United States to be with his wife and daughters. Denton was married to his wife, Pauline for twenty-five years.

Denton was raised in the town of Mt. Ogle, St. Andrew, Jamaica, WI. He would always share stories of his childhood growing up in Jamaica.

Denton prided himself on being a Rastafarian and was a member of the Twelve Tribes of Israel.

Denton worked during his late teens and early twenties as a carpenter; and that love of craftsmanship continued throughout his years. Upon his arrival to the United States he worked as a maintenance engineer at the Paramus Park Mall for over twenty years.

Denton was a well-loved man who was full of life. He was always upbeat, positive, and willing to lend a helping hand. The things that gave him a lot of joy included music, gardening, and carpentry. He had an amazing garden and he spent many hours cultivating, and caring for it. Denton would share the fruits of his labor with anyone who asked. He also enjoyed doing anything that involved working with his hands. He would re-upholster furniture, paint, and assemble a variety of things. He also shared his craftsmanship abilities with family members, his neighbors, coworkers, and friends. He even inspired his four year old grandson to be just like him; little Kristian was proud to declare: “when he grew up he wanted to be just like his grandpa because his grandpa could build houses and beds, and can fix anything that is broken.”

He is survived by: his wife, Pauline; his three daughters, Stacy, Shaneka, and Desiree; grandchildren, Amaya, Kameron, Keanna, and Kristian; his two brothers, George, Basil, and his sister, Carmel; his niece, Novlet; and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members and friends.

Psalm 27

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell. Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident. One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to enquire in his temple.
