Celebration Of Life

Betty Jean Street, was born to the late Viola Breeden and Roosevelt Johnson (Bubba) on November 22, 1955 in Bennettsville, SC. Betty Jean was the seventh child of twelve children.

Betty Jean attended the Marlboro County School system and graduated from East Side High School. Upon graduating in 1973, Betty Jean moved to Brooklyn, New York from 1973-1975. Betty Jean attended New York Technical College. She then moved back to Bennettsville where she worked for Hane Hosiery until it closed.

In 1980, she met Robert S. Street, Sr. they were united in marriage on November 6, 1981. From this union they had two sons, Gremel F. Street and Robert S. Street, Jr. They relocated to New Jersey in 1983.

In 1984, she worked at University Hospital, in 2011 she retired. Betty Jean enjoyed her retirement by traveling and spending time with her family and friends. In 1996, Betty Jean joined Divinity Missionary Baptist Church. In 2013 her health started to fail, she fought a good fight until October 18, 2013. She traded her earthly vessel for a heavenly body. We know when she reached glory along with saying Hallelujah she said "Hello girlfriend, Hollah." One thing about Betty Jean you either like it or love it. "Hollah." She always brought life and laughter everywhere she went. So today we celebrate her life. In memory of Betty Jean lets all say "Hello girlfriend, Hollah!"

She was predeceased by her sister, Aretha Breeden, her brothers, James Breeden, Sr. and Chuckey Breeden.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Gremel F. Street and Robert S. Street, Jr., five sisters, Dorothy Breedan of Bennettsville, SC, Zettie Fuller, Sophia Parker of High Point, NC, Virginia Lloyd of Brooklyn, New York (Lynn) and Lisa Ann McLaine of Fayetteville, NC (James); two brothers, Charles Breeden of Bennettsville, SC, and Willie Breeden of Brooklyn, New York (Dina); aunts, Betty Laidlaw of Bennettsville, SC (Melvin), and Elder Sears (Audrey) of Brooklyn, New York; friend of life, Robert S. Street, Sr.; in-laws, Selena Oliva of GA, Majorie Talmadge of GA, Mrs. Ella Street of GA (mother-in-law); girlfriends, Catherine (Fat) Beverly, Gail, Patricia, Claudine, Arleen and Rachel; and a host of nieces and nephews.

To My Beloved Mother

*Mother you were such a good one,
you raised me oh, so well
You lived your life and grew in grace,
No one else can take your place*

*No more pain and suffering will you endure I loved you so much, but God loved you more. He chose you to come through those pearly gates,
Oh you are so much better in that perfect place.
You were much more than a mother, you were my backbone, best friend, mentor and leader I will always love you, and your memories will live with me for the rest of my life. I could not be so selfish to have you all for myself. He wanted to enjoy all of those magnificent memories that I have of you. You have emerged from this earthly shell, Now with ? And ? you will dwell.*

Acknowledgements

The family of the late wishes to express our sincere thanks for all the wonderful expressions of love during our time of bereavement.
