Reflections Of Life

Charles Peavy, was born on October 19, 1953 in Passaic, New Jersey to the parents of L.C. and the late Janie (Lester) Peavy.

During Charles' formative years, he attended Passaic Senior High School in Passaic, New Jersey. After his class graduation he enlisted in the Air Force the month of August 1971, but he did not accomplish his goal in the Air Force. Due to the nature of his sickness a honorable discharge was granted. Charles spent many years in VA Hospital for extensive care.

Charles never got married or had any children.

Charles leaves to cherish his memory: his dearly beloved sister, Barbara Anne Peavy-Parker of Nutley, New Jersey; brother, Michael G. Peavy of Passaic, New Jersey; sister, Vernita L. Peavy of Wood-ridge, New Jersey; sister, Joyce Balam of Florida; brother, Larry Balam of Georgia; father, L.C. Peavy of Georgia; nephews, Derrick A. Parker, Justin A. Parker and Corey A. Parker; nieces, Latoya Peavy, Trenace Peavy, and Alexis Peavy.

Charles Favorite Scripture

Matthew 11:28-30

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

In Memory of My Beloved Brother Charles

If I only had five minutes the night you passed away. I would have had time to tell you all the things I needed to say.

I am so sorry that I was not by your bed side. If I only had five minutes the night you passed away.

I would hold your hand so tight and see you smile at me. Although, I was not there JESUS took my place and touched your face.

Your soul is free now no more pain and suffering. I am glad to know it's all over.

If only I had five minutes just to say I LOVE YOU and it's alright to sleep In peace now my beloved brother Charles.

Acknowledgements

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation every thought and act of kindness extended towards them during this time. May God bless you all.
