Reflections of Life

Kay Frances (Cathey) Macon was born January 30, 1937 to the late Raymond and Elsie Cathey in Passaic, New Jersey. Kay was raised in East Rutherford where she attended the public school system.

Kay met and married the late John Macon and from this union a beautiful daughter, Heather was born.

Kay was employed for 25 years at Farleigh Dickinson University in Rutherford and Teaneck, NJ in the admissions office. Kay was also the faculty advisor for the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority.

Kay was a member of the Mt. Ararat Baptist Church in Rutherford, NJ, where she was active for many years. Kay was a member of the church choir, the Kitchen Committee, and The Pastor's aides. She was also The President of the Women's Club, as well as the President and Secretary of the church's Bowling League.

In 2005, Kay moved to Charlotte, North Carolina with her family where she remained until being called home. Kay is preceded in death by 2 sisters, Winifred (Cathey) Tolbert and Rae Jayne (Cathey) Williams.

Kay enjoyed reading, music, cooking, as well as attending plays, and concerts. Kay's smile would light up any room and her laughter was extremely infectious.

God called His angel home on Friday, October 18, 2013.

She leaves to cherish fond memories: her daughter, Heather Macon-Hudson of Charlotte, North Carolina; 3 grandsons, Devin Macon, Michael and Jonathan Hudson of Charlotte; a granddaughter, Mikayla Hudson of Charlotte; a sister, Waunona (Cathey) Hillgrove of Passaic, NJ; a son-in-law, Michael Hudson; 2 godsons, Keith and Kevin Place; special friends, John and Shernetta Harris; and a host of nieces, nephews, friends and neighbors.

Death Came Quietly

*Death came quietly, and gave me a gentle sleep,
To those that I leave behind, please don't weep.
The good Lord giveth and at times he taketh away,
Rejoice now and celebrate the life he gave me,
All things that happen are surely meant to be.
When I was alive, you were all so dear,
If you just remember, the good times, you'll feel that I am near. It's a time like this that weighs heavy on your heart,
Put a smile on your face and make a brand new start.
Family and friends that I love, please don't weep,
Death came quietly and gave me a gentle sleep.
