Obituary

Jeanette Marie Jackson, born in Lynchburg, Virginia. Jeanette Marie Ambler to John and Claudine on December 31, 1931.

Jeanette had a modest education and gave birth early in life to a daughter named Edith. What she lacked in education, she more than made up for in life. She has read many books and had an uncanny instinct for identifying personalities.

She later married Wesley A. Jackson. Five children followed, James Wanda, Janice, Teresa and Reginald. After a separation she met a man, Melvin Brown five children followed, Linda, Dwayne, Melvin, Michael and Steven.

Jeanette was a warm loving, caring and no nonsense person. The one word that described Jeanette is "Responsibility" If you needed her she was always there.

She leaves in loving care of our Lord: ten children, twenty-five grandchildren, eighteen great grandchildren, eleven great-great grandchildren.

To my beloved grandma,

"I remember the days you use to come pick me up and say we going on that street. I will miss you. You will be in my heart."

- Love Timothy

Grandma Wobbie,

"You were a stern and fair woman. Conversation I had with you were lessons of choosing the path that was right for you and being able to live with the choice you make. I love you grandma."

- Love Angela

To my loving grandma,

"You were the best friend I ever had. You never turned your back and was always there for me. You being my grandma was truly a blessing, I love you."

- Love Alease
