Obituary

Vernon Willis Ward also affectionately known as “Cheesy”, was one of ten children born in Brooklyn, NY to Ella Mae Shell and Henry Willis Ward. When his mother suffered an untimely death, Vernon was raised by foster parents. He reunited with his siblings later in life.

After a short stint in the Army, Vernon traveled to different states in the U.S.

He met his wife, Jacqueline in 1997, enrolled in the college of New Rochelle, received his Bachelor’s Degree, and married Jacqueline in 2002. He became a Substance Abuse Counselor in 2004.

Although Vernon struggled with various issues and challenges throughout life, he overcame them and made many friends in the process.

Vernon was sixty-three years old and survived by: his wife, Jacqueline; two brothers, Hiawatha and Christopher; two sisters, Ella and Ernestine; three stepdaughters, Angela, Christine and Keisha; and a multitude of grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

John 14:1-3

Let not your heart be troubled: you believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you to myself; that where I am, there you may be also.
