Memories

To Those I Love And Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me. Let me go
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tie yourself to me with tears, Be happy, we had so many years.

I gave you my love and you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled alone.

So grieve a while for me if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless those memories in your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near with all my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and "Welcome You Home."

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Yolande Aime was born on December 12th 1955 in Ennery, Haiti to loving parents Marie Roseline Noel and Joseph Aime. She was a protector for all of her love ones. She worked as a hair stylist and a Nursing Assistant. Unfortunately, due to medical conditions she retired and became a Homemaker. Yolande was a lifelong and very active member of the Haitian Baptist Church at the Crossroads.

She was very well known for her successful fundraiser's within the Church. Yolande was a very kind and gentle soul with a wonderful sense of humor. She had a loving and generous heart, and was always giving to others.

On Saturday November 2nd, 2013, God called on Yolande Aime; a wife, mother, grandmother, daughter and sister, she passed away at the age of 57. Yolande will be lovingly remembered by her husband Aunondieu Jean-Baptiste, her mother, Marie Roseline Noel, her daughters: Nerva Barthelemy, Rose Kathy Barthelemy, and China Barthelemy. Her sons: Lordwins Barthelemy and Marvin Jean Baptiste. Her stepdaughters: Ghislande Brun and Dalie Nicolas. Her stepsons: Emmanuel Jean-Baptiste, Jude Jean-Baptiste and Kenneth Jean- Baptiste.

Yolande will also be fondly remembered by her grandchildren: Tanasia, Sarriyah, Zair, Khani, Nhila, Mickyle, Mickaila, Gabrielle, Cielle-Gina, Tranace, Zayonah, Zaniyaa and ZaTavia. Her siblings: Rita Aime, Violette Osias and Jean Richard Osias including her nieces & nephews: Vency, Ralph, Dayana, Viola and Esther. She also leaves to mourn and cherish her memory her pastor, church family members and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.

Sweet smile on your face as you sleep the pain away,
Resting in God's arms now, although in the ground your body lay.
He needed another angel in the Heavenly choir and that's why you had to go.
As you promised, you are still with us watching your children here below.

I never would have imagined the end would be like this, me comforting you.
Holding your hand, telling you not to worry was not an easy thing for me to do.
And even in your weakest hour you tried to comfort me too,
Caressing my face, and calming my soul as only a mother can soothe.

You have always been there through the thick and the thin
No matter what I've done, unconditionally you love never wavering.
When I told you of the mistakes I made and all the times people saw me fall
You simply nodded and gently replied 'so have we all'.
The key to success is learning from the past
Ensuring a brighter future is now the present task.

A pillar of strength even until the end
Fighting all life's battles, knowing it's triumphantly you would win
Pushing me to be the best that you know I can be Reminding me to keep the faith and allow God to lead me.
Knowing it's through Christ that I can do all things
And as He never makes a mistake I will come through victoriously.

I miss you more than these words could ever say
The pain in my heart is from one unimaginable day
After I cried all that I could; my eyes still shed countless more tears
And when I try to sleep, I have nightmares of ten-thousand fears
I walk in footsteps on an unsure path
My load feels so heavy I am not sure I will last.

Silly though I may be I am afraid of life now that you're gone
Because I've always had a mother.
And Mommy, what about my sister and baby brother.
I wish you could have stayed just a little while longer, there's so much left to do
I wonder if I prayed hard enough and if so, did they get through.

Finding relief in knowing I will see you again someday soon
Remembering all you taught me as my soul I continue to groom
I will walk in footsteps you have walked before me
Seeing the path you walked lead you, Mommy, straight into victory.

So as you sleep Mommy, in the cradle of the Lord,
I am reassured of God's promises in His Holy Word.
I dream of the day when Heaven's gates open to receive me
And with your smiling face and loving eyes, reunited once again I will be.

Thank you for the gift of love,
now you're sharing it up above.
You had many things to say.
All in a caring way.
You always saw good in everyone,
No matter what they've done.
You were always the one we could all lean on.
Even though it must have felt like a ton.
You were always the strength of the family.
Now we must let you rest calmly.
As we say goodbye,
as tears roll down our eyes.
I know your place in heaven has a good view.
Because you're telling God,
I need to keep an eye on a few.
I know you will always be in our hearts and mind.
So Grandma,
I must go, but I'll never forget you're one of a kind.

To My Wife: I thank God for the 20 plus years that we endured together. We've had good and bad times but God saw us through it all. You always used to joke if you were to pass, I will not remarry. God knew I never thought that this will come to reality so soon. I thank you for your love and strong faith in God. Your job here on earth is finally over. I will take comfort knowing you are in Heaven celebrating, singing and praising God. You will always and forever be in my heart.

From Your Loving Husband: JeanBa
