Obituary

Pauline Virginia Reeves, daughter of the late Clifford Merritt and Lillian Cheatwood, was born on October 21, 1942, in Beckley, West

Pauline was an avid reader, plant lover and she loved to go to the park to watch the sun rise and set. She also loved animals, especially Chihuahuas. Over the years she had several of them. Her last Chihuahua was Decota.

Pauline leaves to cherish her memory: six children and Robin King a close family friend, who was like a daughter to Pauline; two sisters, Ruth Cecelia Martin (Robert) and Patricia O. Moss. She also leaves a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, a legacy of nieces, nephews, relatives and faithful friends.

Celebrate My Life

*Weep not for me though
I am gone into that gentle night.
Grieve if you will,
but not for long upon my soul's sweet flight.
I am at peace; my soul is at rest there is no need for tears.
For with your love I am so blessed for all those many years.*

*There is no pain I suffer not, the fear now all is gone.
Put now these things out of your thoughts,
in your memory I live on.
Remember not my fight for breath,
remember not the strife.
Please do not dwell upon my death,
but celebrate my life.*

In Appreciation

The family wishes to express their humble gratitude and appreciation for all the acts of kindness during Pauline Reeves' illness and now during our bereavement. Most of all we thank you for your prayers, because we know that the prayers are what sustained and comforted us through it all.

At a later date the family will acknowledge all the kind deeds that have been extended to us. May God continue to bless each of you.
