Reflections of Life

Leslie Elton Lipman was born February 7, 1953, in Kingston, Jamaica, to Linnette Bibbons and Ranford Lipman.

After receiving his former education, he enlisted in the United States Army. Leslie served for over fifteen years, traveling to many countries including Germany, Panama and Korea, to name a few.

Upon retiring from the military, Leslie resided in Anchorage, Alaska. He was a successful business partner with Wincor Cleaning Contractors in Fort Richardson, Alaska.

Leslie relocated to Bronx, New York, and enjoyed being closer to family. He was a private man; yet, very caring, generous, and easy-going.

Leslie Elton Lipman passed away on November 7, 2013, at the age of 60.

Leslie is preceded in death by his father, Ranford Lipman; son, Phillip Lipman; brother, Steve Lipman; and sister Sandra (Precious) Lipman.

He leaves to cherish his mother, Linnette Brown; daughters, Tanysha and Jessica Lipman; grandchildren, Khalil and Vanessa Lipman; brothers Dennis and Michael (Devon) Lipman; and many loving nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Don't Grieve For Me

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took His hand when I heard him call;

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way;

I found that place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy.

A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss;

Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much;

Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my time seems all to brief;

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free.

and sincere thanks for all acts of kindness shown to them in their time of sorrow.*
