Reflections of Life

Richard Dixon Jr. was one of three children born to Dorothy Dixon and Richard Dixon Sr. on March 18, 1946 in New York.

Most people know him as “Butch” which he was called since a young kid growing up in Harlem. Butch was a special and unique man to those who knew him. He always spoke from the heart and never held anything back. He was a very knowledgeable man who always tried to help and teach others.

Butch worked for MTA for over twenty plus years. He recently retired in 2010.

Butch had been ill for the past couple of years and succumbed to his illness on November 12, 2013.

Butch leaves behind his son, Richard Dixon III; grandson, Hassan Dixon; sister, Constance Mays; daughter-in-law, many nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
