

He Has Set Me Free

So much to tell you Since I went away

I just explain You won't believe this place. The joy I felt when Jesus took my hand "Come with me now Mattie Your journey has come to an end." What about my family? I asked with Concern, the pain they must feel I don't want them to hurt. Jesus looked at me with a great big smile and said I am with them always, they will be safe. We are going home now Mattie, some family is there just at heavens gate. As we entered the gates I heard someone yelled my name, I recognized the sound. To my surprise By God's grace, my son, my husband, and my parents, I looked at the smile on their face. Jesus said Mattie you have to come meet my Father and that only through me. You have earned Your everlasting crown and wings for life. I just can't believe how great I feel, there is no more pain, I am no longer ill. To my three girl you know who you are, to my family, friends and those who loved me do not be sad. This is not goodbye, I'll see you again when your journey will end, I will be the one at heaven gate chanting your name. Until that time be happy for me. When you look to the heavens know that's where I'll be dancing for the Lord for eternity....

...Glory to God He has set me Free."

"Memory of Our Mother"

"Mother Love", you had helped us through all our struggles, and am will always be the most important person In our life. To be a mother is not an easy task, yet you did it proudly everyday no matter what is asked. You have turned your eldest child into a beautiful Independent woman who work hard as you did. You watch your baby girl more closely from the very beginning and saved her from countless tears, but you always told us to be strong no matter what comes your way, but most important to always keep God first. The pushy and wise advise you gave us it will carry us through our grieve and pain, but we know you are in a better place. There is no to her person that will shape our heart the way you've done. You gave us life, work hard to give us a home, food clothes and you have always put in your last with "love", to us you are a virtues "mother". We will always remember your beautiful smile, and pretty hazel eyes. We will always love you forever....

Love your girls
