Obituary

Randolph Moses, Sr. (known as Randy Moe), was born February 7, 1964 to the loving parents, Mary and Andrew Moses in New York City. He was born at Sydenham Hospital.

He was very passionate when it came to sports. As native New Yorkers, Randy and his mother Mary would constantly rival at who was the better home team the Yankess or the Mets. His true passion however was football. He fell in love with the game through numerous neighborhood games where he brought his friends to victory as their quarterback. He was a die hard Pittsburgh Steeler fan, however his true loyalties lied with his true home team, his family. His children were his world and above all he enjoyed nothing more than enjoying his days and sporting events with them.

He was the life of the party and could lift the spirits in the darkest of rooms with just a joke. He was a smooth talker who had a way with words.

Randy leaves to mourn: his mother and friend, Mary Moses; two children, Randolph (Randy Jr.) and Krystal; his nephew, Isaiah; aunt, Evelyn; uncle, Willie; his cousin, Will; god sister, Debra; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
