Life Reflections

Gettie Lee Scott was born on December 3, 1930 in Apopka, Florida to the late Otis and Elizabeth Scott. As a young woman she married and gave birth to two children, one daughter, Deborah Stokes and one son, Henry Stokes. After moving to New Jersey Gettie met, fell in love and married Willie James Corbett. To this extraordinary union one son was born, Spencer James Corbett.

Gettie, a loving wife and mother had one passion, which was her family. Endless love and care was showered upon all of her grandchildren, of which two she raised. She enjoyed taking day trips and road trips with her grandchildren. Her heart had such a special place for children that she spent many years working as a Supervisor at Willow Brook State School for Mentally Retarded Children in Staten Island, New York.

On Sunday, November 17, 2013 her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ called her home and she departed this life for a glorious homecoming.

One daughter, Deborah Stokes and two granddaughters, Jaczinta and Rasheeda Stokes preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Henry Stokes and Spencer Corbett; six loving grandchildren, Julia Stokes, Daeisha Stokes-Deas, Aliya and Spencer Corbett, Jr., Samad Stokes, Cierra Hall, eight great grandchildren; and a host of other family and friends.

She was very special to all of us and although she will no longer walk this earthly path, the memories we made together will forever be held in our hearts.

*Those we love are never really lost to us.
We feel them in so many special ways-
Through friends they always cared about and dreams they left behind.
In beauty that they added to our days...
In words of wisdom we still carry with us and memories that never will be gone...
Those we love are never really lost to us-
For everywhere their special love lives on.*

Lovingly and Sorrowfully,
The Family

“Where Our Sympathy Expresses Itself Through Sincere Service”

Gettie and Willie Together Again

The Precious Gift

One gift, above all others
God gives to us to treasure
One that knows no time, nor place
And one gold cannot measure.

The precious, poignant, tender gift
Of Memory...that will keep
Our dear ones ever in our hearts
Although God gives them sleep.

It brings back long remembered things
A song, a word, a smile
And our world's a better place because
We had him for awhile!
