Obituary

Quincy Lee Haywood, also known as (Omar Muhammad), born on May 30, 1965 in Newark, New Jersey.

Quincy was the fourth child of six children born to Maggie Haywood and Willie Williams.

Quincy attended the Newark Public School System and graduated from Barringer High School.

Quincy was a Carpet Layer. Afterwards he became an Assistant Administrator of the East Orange Chiropractic firm for several years, before he established The Services of Physicians, where he was the C.E.O. Quincy then created “Q News Urban Connect.”

Quincy was a very modest, yet loving and caring man, he was always ready and willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. You would always find Quincy with a smile on his face. He was a very pleasant and happy person and it was a delight to be in his company. The most important things to him was his family and his children.

Quincy was preceded in death by his father, William Henry Williams, his sister, Tonya Haywood, father-in-law, Robert Broadus, sister-in-law, Theresa Broadus, brother-in-law, Mark Broadus and Jose Saez and nephew, Antonio Collins.

Quincy leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Jessica Haywood; his sons, Rashan Duprey and Amir Armstrong; his daughter, Diamond Haywood; four grandchildren. Rashan Jr., LaKayah, Amir and Antonio Duprey; his mother, Maggie Haywood; mother-in-law, Audrey Broadus; his five sisters, Juanita Holland, Clevetta and Janet Williams, Denise and Magdalene Haywood; six brothers, Kenneth Haywood, Daniel, Author, Alvin and Walter Williams and Mark Leonard; Naomi Muhammad; three sisters-in-law, Margaret and Sabrina Broadus and Patricia Broadus-Saez; four brothers-in-law, Victor, Mario and Kayo Broadus and Losie Holland; four aunts and two uncles; and a whole bunch of nieces and nephews too many to count, that were all love by Quincy, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
