Obituary

Ann Mae Ebron, was born in Camden, South Carolina on September 11, 1928 to Samuel and Louella Ross. She was the second of seven children, two have preceded her in death.

Ann relocated to New York as a child with her parents and older brother. She was educated in the New York Public School system and graduated from Julia Richman High School. Over the years she had three children.

Ann worked for the New York Telephone Company for thirteen years where she retired in February, 1989. She moved to Virginia shortly after with her husband, Lee Ebron who she married in New York in 1986, he preceded her in death in 1995.

Ann was a very loving, caring and demure person (but, she had her moments). Ann loved her family and will be greatly missed.

Ann leaves behind: two daughters; one son; five grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and six great-great-grandchildren.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.*

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
