

Beyond Life's Gateway

*There's an open gate
at the end of the Road
Through which each one must go alone*

*And there is a light we cannot see
Our Father claims His own
Beyond the Gate our loved one finds
Happiness and rest
And there is comfort in the thought that a loving God knows best.*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

On Friday morning, November 22, 2013 after suffering a long illness due to complications from a stroke, Carlton C. Lovett passed away while a resident of a nursing home in Springfield, NJ. Carlton (the youngest of three) was born October 21, 1935 in Harlem, New York to the late Charles and Mary Lovett. The Lovett family moved from Harlem to the Lafayette section of Jersey City NJ where young Carlton attended P.S. 22 elementary school and Lincoln High School for his secondary education. After high school Carlton worked odd jobs in the local area before deciding to go college out of state.

Carlton enrolled into Virginia Union University where he studied business. Carlton enjoyed the college life and established several life-long friendships during his collegiate years. He became a member the Alpha Gamma chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. and also met his future bride Gladys Johnson of Mount Vernon, New York. After graduation, Carlton returned to New Jersey where he was employed by the City of Jersey City in various positions. In his spare time Carlton joined the Army National Guard and served continuously for 35 years and ascended to the rank of Colonel before his disability retirement.

Carlton married Gladys in 1962 and gave birth to a son, Carlton Charles Lovett II a year later. In 1969 the Lovett family moved to Hillside NJ. Carlton continued his public service career with the City of Newark in the Employment and Training department. Under the Gibson administration Carlton leveraged his experience within the City of Newark to develop his own consulting firm and develop a client base throughout New Jersey. Carlton continued to devote his time to developing his consulting business while supporting the Virginia Union Alumni Association NJ chapter and the Newark Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. in his spare time. Carlton was predeceased by his (father) Charles, (Mother) Mary Dallum and (brother) Arthur Lovett. Carlton leaves behind a wife, Gladys, son Carlton II, daughter-in-law Renee, two grandchildren Taylor & Carlton III, a sister Henrietta Lovett Marshall, nephew Todd Lovett, two nieces Ellen Lovett Reaves and Althea Ortiz, two aunts Catherine Lyles and Viola Williams and a host of relatives, colleagues and friends.
