Obituary

Eloise Curry, was born on April 9, 1947 in Adel, GA, to the late John Henry and the late Ida Lee Covington. Left to cherish precious memories are sister, Reba (James) White and to fraternal brothers and four fraternal sisters who loved her dearly.

As a young girl her family moved to Newark, New Jersey. While in New Jersey she met, fell in love and was united in holy matrimony to Douglas E. Curry on August 15, 1965. Through this union, her loving family increased to include seven children, Raymond (Cathy) Covington, Elonda Carter, Douglas Junior (Marie) Curry, Keion (Quetrelma) Curry, Kevin Curry, Aleia (Edward) Teasley, Theresa (Reco) Jackson and god daughter, Brenda Jones-Jarrett, and god son, Raheem Cowan.

While in New Jersey, she received her formal education in Home Healthcare. In 1986, Eloise made Hartwell, Georgia her permanent home. Eloise became a certified Nursing Assistant at Hart County Hospital where she devoted the rest of life caring for others in need. While working at the hospital, she met a true and faithful friend, Mrs. Gloria Gaines.

On Friday, November 29, 2013, Eloise was called to Glory at Clara Maass Medical Center in Belleville, New Jersey. She was a devoted mother and friend to many.

Left to cherish memories are: twenty-one grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Not to be forgotten are a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

She will be greatly missed.

If Tomorrow Never Comes

If I knew it would be the last time I'd see you fall asleep, I would tuck you in more tightly and pray the Lord, your soul to keep, If I knew it would be the last time that I see you walk out the door, I would give you a hug and kiss and call you back for more. If I knew it would be the last time I'd hear your voice lifted in praise, I would video tape each action and word, so I could play them back day after day. If I knew it would be the last time, I could spare an extra minute or two to stop and say "I Love You", instead of assuming you would KNOW I do. If I knew it would be the last time I would be there to share your day, well I'm sure you'll have so many more, so I can let just this one slip away. For surely there's always tomorrow to make up for an oversight, and we always get a second chance to make everything right. There will always be another day to say our "I love you's", And certainly there's another chance to say our "Anything I can do's?" But just in case I might be wrong, and today is all I get, I'd like to say how much I love you and I hope you never forget, Tomorrow is not promised to anyone, young or old alike, And today may be the last chance you get to hold your loved one tight. So if you're waiting for tomorrow, why not do it today? For if tomorrow never comes, you'll surely regret the day, That you didn't take that extra time for a smile, a hug, or a kiss and you were too busy to grant someone, what turned out to be their one last wish. So hold your loved ones close today, whisper in their ear, Tell them how much you love them and that you'll always hold them dear, Take time to say "I'm sorry," "please forgive me," "thank you" or "it's okay". And if tomorrow never comes, you'll have NO regrets about Today.
